

year end campaign

Dear Friends

This year FAME celebrated 12 years of providing youth of many socioeconomic and cultural backgrounds with access to rigorous educational experiences, scholarships, instruments, intensive summer technology camps, cultural and artistic excursions, and much more.

Statistics indicate that children who participate in music, likely to earn higher grades and score better on standardized tests. FAME is dedicated to bringing equity in learning to children who live in poverty and those who attend under-resourced schools. FAME is proud to be in the forefront of a renewed spirit and energy when it comes to young people, the performing arts, and education.

Because of Friends like you, FAME's impact has grown through creative and timely programs. We are honored to have you with us as we strive to build upon our achievements.

Your investment this year resulted in FAME positively impacting the lives of over 1500 youth
