

GRAMMY SONGWRITING Workshop ERIC ROBERSON FEATURING

Designed for aspiring Middle and High School
Songwriters

You are invited to join Grammy nominated singer & songwriter Eric Roberson and members of his multi-talented band for a fun-filled day of music making.

Eric is an outstanding storyteller and his music is relatable, allowing him to form personal connections with each of his listeners. His music is influenced by elements of music styles varying from Soul, Rhythm & Blues, House, Hip-Hop, Jazz, Rock and more, inhibiting him from being confined or limited to any one genre of music. His music is personal, poetic, positive and progressive.

WHEN:
Friday, July 14, 2017
Registration - 8:30 am
Workshop 9:00 am - 4 pm

WHERE:
Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center
University of Maryland College Park
Gildenhorn Recital Hall

REGISTER NOW

www.fameorg.org

Sponsors: The Hon. Derrick Leon Davis,
Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, PEPCO,
MNCPPC Parks and Recreation

Bring your instrument
(optional) and lunch.